

The Talent in Law network

Find out exactly how your firm can manage talent more effectively.

About the Talent in Law network

The Talent in Law network exists to address the specific need for Law Firms to identify, retain and develop individuals against the backdrop of a sector wide war for talent. The broader context is the need for the profession to advance its people management: from communication to performance management, from recognition to development. Due to its unique nature, the sector needs its own taxonomy and best practices to equip HR for change.

Benefits of membership

- Regular network meetings, forging relationships and driving the change agenda
- Shared access to the network resource website
- Co-created research project, benchmarking the profession and shaping innovation and best practice

Member firms include: Ashursts, Berwin Leighton Paisner, Bevan Ashford, Boodle Hatfield, Boyes Turner, Burness Solicitors, Clarke Willmott, Clifford Chance, CMS Cameron McKenna, Cripps Harries Hall, Dechert, Denton Wilde Sapte, DLA, Eversheds, Freshfields, Hempsons, Solicitors, Herbert Smith, Howes Percival Solicitors, Irwin Mitchell Solicitors, Kennedys, Lawrence Graham, Lester Aldridge, Lewis Silkin, Linklaters, Lovells, Lyons Davidson, Masons Solicitors, McGrigor Donald, Morgan Cole, Norton Rose, Osborne Clarke, Penningtons, Pinsents, Silverbeck Rymer Solicitors, Simmons & Simmons, SJ Berwin, Taylor Wessing, The Law Society, Turbervilles, Weightman Vizards Solicitors.

There is currently no charge for membership. Register your interest at talentinlaw@getfeedback.net